

Pet Portraits for A Purpose

Want to immortalize your family pet and raise money to help DFW Humane Society?

For a limited time, you could get a customized whimsical pet portrait created by local artist Brenda Hatter. Your portrait will hang on the “Wall of Fame” at DFW Humane Society as part of a rotating gallery celebrating rescued pets. Your portrait will be returned to you to keep as the gallery changes from portrait to portrait. Not only will you have a personalized portrait of your pet, you will help the humane society save lives of hundreds of homeless animals.

How do you get started? Send the artist a picture of your pet as well as a detailed description of his or her personality.

Details: Portraits painted on a 12”x12” canvas, signed and dated.

*Fee: $150.00

A donation of $50.00 will be donated to the humane society for each portrait commissioned.
